3. (a) The information called for by item 5 (b) and Exhibit A may be waived in whole or in part if, upon written application stating fully the reasons why such waiver is desired, the Chief of the Special War Policies Unit determines that the omission of all or part of such information is consistent with the national defense, internal security, and foreign relations of the United States. If literal compliance with any other requirement of the form is believed to be inappropriate or unduly burdensome, the registrant may make a similar application for a complete or partial waiver of the requirement.

(b) Applications for waivers may be submitted at the time of filing the supplemental statement or at any time prior thereto. Where an application for waiver is denied within 30 days prior to the date of filing the supplemental statement or after the date of filing, the supplemental statement shall be amended to include the information within 30 days after the registrant is notified of such denial.

4. If any of the information called for by any item is not known and cannot readily be ascertained, so indicate and state briefly the reasons why the information cannot be obtained.

Each such supplemental statement shall indicate clearly the period covered. (See also rule 6.)
